

Any ACTIVE member of the Port Clinton Artists' Club is eligible to display their art, subject to judgment of the Sutton Center Art Display Committee. Active membership involves participating in Club events, including but not limited to the following:

- Work at August Arts in the Park show
- Hold an office
- Chair/member of a working committee
- Program host/presenter
- Present or attend workshop
- Refreshment host/hostess
- Regular meeting attendance
- Participation in any Club event

The Sutton Center art display will be changed occasionally during the year. Dates of the changes will be announced at the monthly meetings and published in the newsletter. Items may be brought at the appointed time for consideration or by appointment with the committee. Art may be labeled Private Collection or "Not For Sale" if not meant to be sold, or priced for sale.

Please use a felt pen and write legibly on the display information cards ** which are to be attached to the art, and indicate if the art is your original! The buyer may phone artist directly. If artist is not reached, Bistro 163 will handle the sale for no commission.

*All art is shown at artists' own risk. The Sutton Center is not responsible for damage, loss or theft, nor is the Artists' Club. Art with Sawtooth hangers will not be accepted.

**Each item offered for consideration must be accompanied by the application form below and the display information cards which are both available at monthly meetings. This application form may also be printed from the website in triplicate form and may be used for most club exhibits.
