Tricia Kamen, Composition Study-Still Life

For those of you who missed it, October's Workshop with Tricia Kamen was incredible! Below are a few photos from the class:

November 1st & 2nd, Fri & Sat Acrylics

Holiday Mini Canvases

In the November workshop, a variety of scenes shown below will be offered as patterns for the paintings. Students may also bring their own ideas to paint. A student can paint as many mini canvases as they'd like. THESE SMALL CANVASES WOULD MAKE FANTASTIC CHRISTMAS GIFTS.

SUPPLIES:

Mini-Canvases with easel
Water container
Acrylic paints, colors of choice.
Brushes of choice
Paint palette
Sharpened pencil
Any other acrylic supplies you prefer

PS. The mini canvases I used are 3x3" and 3x4". There will be mini-canvases with easels on sale in workshop for $3.00 for anyone that would like to purchase one or more.

The workshop is scheduled for Nov. 1st & 2nd in the mornings from 9:00-12:30. The total member cost for both classes is $20.00. A member can attend only one of these morning classes for $10.00 if they choose.
